If Arthur M. Hyde, Republican nominee for governor, would spend part of his time denouncing the two Republican machines in St. Louis—one of which, headed by a Market street saloon keeper, supported him—and Republican bosses in Kansas City, the electorate of the state might pay more attention to his charge that Kansas City has been misgoverned under a Democratic administration—Missouri State Journal.

A SORRY RECORD.

Since 1860 the Republican party has been the party in power for forty-four years. During that time thirty congresses have met. In twenty-one of them the Republicans have been in control. In nine the Democrats have had a majority, but at no time has it been a large majority. During the same period, the Democrats have been in the majority in the Senate, but it has always been a small majority.

The Republican party has been in control in the House about two-thirds of the time since 1860.

It has been in control in the Senate five-sixths of the time.

It has been in control in the White House for forty-four years.

No Republican president has ever spoken for suffrage during his presidential term.

No Republican president ever sent a message to Congress in behalf of suffrage.

No Republican president ever addressed either branch of Congress in behalf of a suffrage amendment—Missouri State Journal.

"I am convinced, after considerable study of the subject, that the expense of the Government can, without loss of efficiency, be reduced to a maximum of four billion dollars, including sinking fund and interest on the national debt."—Governor Cox in his speech of acceptance.

Questions by His Anxious Friends.

I find in my mail the following questions from my former constituents bearing upon the national campaign:

Question. How do Cox and Harding compare with each other as candidates?

Answer. Like a dynamo and a hammock.

Q. Will Harding stick to the front porch?

A. What difference will it make? He'll be stuck anyhow.

Q. What is a mandatory?

A. Boies Penrose. (You see, a mandatory is somebody set up over the weak or the helpless until they can get up out of the rocking chair.)

Q. What kind of a peace would we get by Harding's plan for a declaration of peace by Congress?

A. One-half of one per cent.

Q. Where is "Trail's End?"

A. After March 4, 1921 it will be located at the White House.

Q. How did I like Franklin Roosevelt's speech?

A. It convinced me that the Roosevelt progressive spirit didn't die with F. R. Particularly I liked that reference to Governor Cox as the "engineer-candidate." It means a candidate who knows what he's doing and how to do it; in other words, it means efficiency. Harding is an engineer-candidate, too—stationary engineer.

Q. What did I think of Governor Coolidge's speech?

A. It was very convincing in one respect. If Governor Coolidge pays only $34.50 a month rent, any landlord who would charge Senator Harding more than $25 a month is a profiteer.

Q. Do I think the Republicans are consistent on the League of Nations?

A. "Big Injun" Bill Borah says he wouldn't vote for the League of Nations of the Saviour of Mankind were to ask him. "Big Brother" Bill Taft says he is satisfied with the league covenant just as President Wilson brought it from Paris, and at last reports they were both for Harding. Republican consistency on the league is a jewel—the kind you buy at the 1 and 10 cent stores.

Q. What do I think of the Republican plan for the campaign?

A. Recalling the election of Senator Newberry and the way the candidacies of General Wood and Governor Lowden were managed in the late primaries and mindful of what I hear concerning the campaign fund "allotments," it looks to me something like the Ponz plan with reverse English.

Ending of Babler Endangers Candidate's Election.

St. Louis, Aug. 30.—T. J. Hargadon, chairman of the Republican house cleaners' committee, Saturday gave a statement criticising Arthur M. Hyde, Republican nominee for Governor, for abandoning the fight on Jacob L. Babler, Republican National Committeeman.

The criticism was based on statements alleged to have been made by Hyde Wednesday when he was in St. Louis attending the meeting of the Republican State Committee, to the effect that he intended to take no further part in the movement to oust Babler as national committeeman. The house cleaners' committee has had no meeting since the time of the statement attributed to Hyde. Harry E. Sprague, one of the members of the committee, told newspaper reporters he had no knowledge of the statement.

Asserting that Hyde's strength as a candidate dated from the time he joined in the house cleaning movement, the statement warns Hyde that he cannot expect to obtain the support of Republicans interested in clean politics if he joins with Babler. "He is in danger of forfeiting his office for a mere mess of pottage by making a truce with men who now are politically dead," the statement reads. It concludes with the frequently repeated demand that Babler resign.

"Our opposition is to the things which once existed, in order that they may never return. We oppose money in politics; we oppose the private control of national finances; we oppose the treatment of human beings as commodities; we oppose the saloon-bossed city; we oppose starvation wages; we oppose rule by groups and cliques. In the same way we oppose a period of coma in our national life."—Franklin D. Roosevelt in acceptance speech.

"For years large contributions have been made to the Republican campaign fund for no purpose except to buy a governmental underhold and to make illegal profits as the result of preference."—Governor Cox in his speech of acceptance.

"Even as the nation entered the war for an ideal, so it has emerged from the war with the determination that the ideal shall not die."—Franklin D. Roosevelt in speech of acceptance.

Listen, good friends, and you shall hear why some Cigarettes are so all-fired dear

SOME cigarettes are packed in pretty boxes that certainly don't grow on trees. Next, they're dolled up—and flavorings are sure getting expensive. And then, they're priced a bit high so they'll seem "exclusive." But read how Spur Cigarettes offer the highest possible quality at the lowest possible price:

If there are any finer tobaccos from the Orient and the good old U. S. A. than those selected for Spurs, they must be a secret that the world has never heard. And when we got these combined in Spur Cigarettes, what do you suppose was the result? Just the best taste and aroma that any cigarette could give, and Willie Doll-up or Freddie Flavoring hadn't a thing to do with it.

Spur is "class" all through—even to the smart "brown-and-silver" package, triple-wrapped, that keeps Spurs fresh and fragrant. Try out a package of Spurs. You'll say "made and priced for popularity."
